Red Word work. Red words are words that we need to practice spelling and memorize because they do not follow the phonics rules. Practice makes permanent! One way to practice spelling Red Words is ARM-TAPPIING. Here's how:

- Use your DOMINANT hand to TAP on the other arm. If you are right-handed, place the right hand on the left shoulder to begin. You will work shoulder down to the wrist. If you are left-handed, place the left hand on the right wrist. You will work wrist up to the shoulder.
- Say the word. (THE)
- Tap and say each letter of the word once as you move down the arm. (T-H-E)
- Say the word again as you sweep the hand from the shoulder down along the arm. (THE)
- Repeat for a total of three times. (THE, T-H-E with taps , THE with a sweep)
