

GTACS faculty, staff, and families,

Here are the most recent school-associated cases of COVID-19:

- November 28, a student at Immaculate Conception - close contacts are being notified
- November 27, a student at St. Francis High School - we are working with the Health Department to determine if there are any school-associated close contacts as a result of this exposure